Helpful Hints for Your Onshore Exploration

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes suitable for the day's activities. For more active experiences, sturdy, non-slip footwear or hiking shoes are recommended.
- Dress respectfully when visiting cultural or religious sites. Shoulders and knees should be covered where required.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen to stay protected from the sun.
- Carry bottled water to stay hydrated, particularly during active or warmer excursions.
- For water-based activities, remember to bring swimwear and a towel.
- Insect repellent may be useful for outdoor or nature-focused explorations.

While excursions may be shown for embarkation and disembarkation ports, they may not be available to book on the day you board or leave the ship due to operational requirements. The excursions listed are offered exclusively for ports of call during the voyage.

Once onboard, you are welcome to visit the Destinations Desk to discuss your onward travel plans. In some cases, transfer services may be available to suit your individual arrangements. Please note that these services are not listed in this document, as they cannot be pre-booked and are available for purchase only whilst onboard Regatta.

Barcelona	Spain	BCN-001	Highlights	HIGHLIGHTS OF BARCELONA	$139	4	MODERATE	Absorb the best of Barcelona and experience its diverse architectural heritage with a panoramic drive, photo stops at key attractions and some time for independent exploration at the stunning Gothic Quarter. On the tony boulevard Passeig de Gràcia, drive past a feast of elegant buildings including astounding early 20th-century creations by idiosyncratic architect Antoni Gaudí, now UNESCO World Heritage sites. Pause at Gaudí's unfinished masterpiece, the Sagrada Família, a colossal basilica begun in 1883 and another UNESCO World Heritage site that epitomizes its creator's visionary style. You'll rejoice in the basilica's cacophony of twisting columns, fanciful spires and stained-glass windows, architectural miracles conjured by Gaudí and his successors. Back on your coach, drive through charming neighbourhoods before ascending Montjuïc, a picturesque hill and key site during the 1992 Olympics. Alighting at a well-placed lookout, you'll discover terrific views of Barcelona and its harbour, the city's many marvels spread out before you. At the Gothic quarter, enjoy some free time for independent exploration and strolling its narrow streets and handsome squares, lined with medieval buildings, and scattered about with remnants of walls and other constructions from an earlier Roman city.	This tour includes approximately 3 hours of walking. It is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Please be advised that there will be a 15-minute walk from the parking area to the Sagrada Família and vice versa (30 minutes in total).
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-003	Highlights	MONASTERY OF MONTSERRAT	$179	5	STRENUOUS	Explore the wondrous Monastery of Montserrat, a revered religious site situated high on a craggy, sacred mountain that offers breathtaking views. Relax during a vista-filled drive through a hilly and then mountainous country landscape to the Montserrat Range, a dramatic chain of serrated limestone mountains. After approximately ninety minutes, you'll reach the base of the mountain and then will embark a panoramic-glassed rackrail train to reach the monastery, which is nestled beneath extraordinary rock formations that evoke upright loaves of bread. Upon arrival, watch an introductory film depicting a monk's typical day and indulge in a taste of the monastery's traditional liqueur. Step into the monastery's centrepiece, the ornate basilica, whose highlight is a venerated wooden, dark-skinned statue of the Virgin that has attracted pilgrims since the 12th century. At the conclusion of your tour, enjoy time on your own, perhaps browsing the monastery's enticing shop or taking in sweeping views of the striking mountain scenery.	This tour includes approximately 2 hours of walking. It is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. This tour includes moderate, uphill walking. There will be some steps and uneven surfaces to negotiate. Travel time to Montserrat is approximately 1 ½ hours by coach in each direction. Tour include a one-way ride on the rackrail way to Monsterrat, lasting approx 15 min. Tour can be operated in reversed order.
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-004	Highlights	LEISURELY BARCELONA	$119	3	EASY	This highly relaxing tour presents the best of Barcelona, primarily from the comfort of a motor coach, in addition to superb 360° views at the new the new vantage point of Barcelona: Torre Glories. Departing from pier, your immersion into Barcelona's history will be immediate with a pass by the Columbus Monument and the Old Port, while on your way to the Arc de Triomf and the Ciutadella Park; both part of the legacy from the 1888 World Exhibition and, the latter, once the garrison that protected the city. Stop at Torre Glories, a beautifully bullet shaped skyscraper located in the technological district of Barcelona. Take a spacious lift to the 30th floor and admire the breath taking views from the new vantage point: see the main iconic landmarks of the city from the distance, including Sagrada Família, the W Barcelona hotel, the Collserola Natural Park and, of course, the sea promenade. Heading back into town, your coach will proceed through Marina avenue towards Diagonal until reaching the world-famous boulevard of Passeig de Gràcia. This tribute to modernism is home to Barcelona's most famed buildings, among those Antoni Gaudí's Casa Milà and Casa Batlló. Continue on through the city's oldest path, Via Laietana, and enjoy a drive through Plaça Espanya, the Fair and Congress Palace, and Maria Cristina Avenue en route to Montjuïc Hill. Before returning to the pier, you will enjoy a scenic drive through Montjuïc's hill mirador which offers some of the best views over the city.	This tour is primarily panoramic in nature with walking at the guest's discretion during stops. It is available to guests who utilise a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary.
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-005	Highlights	HIGHLIGHTS OF BARCELONA AND MONTSERRAT	$209	8.5	MODERATE	Contrast the sophisticated architecture of Barcelona with a time-honoured monastery located in a mountaintop wilderness. Begin with a drive through lush Montjuïc, site of the 1992 Olympic Games' main stadium, and then proceed to Plaça Catalunya, beating heart of the city. Making your way along tony Passeig de Gràcia, you'll pass Antoni Gaudí's fiercely original Casa Milà and Casa Batlló, designated UNESCO World Heritage sites along with the architect's extraordinary Sagrada Família, where you'll pause for photos. You'll rejoice in this basilica's cacophony of twisting columns, fanciful spires and stained glass windows, architectural miracles conjured by Gaudí and his successors. Leaving the city, you'll journey into an increasingly rugged terrain of dramatically shaped mountains. After a winding drive up the slopes of a soaring peak, discover the revered Monastery of Montserrat, home to a venerated wooden, dark-skinned statue of the Virgin that has attracted pilgrims since the 12th century. Take advantage of free time to lunch, shop or absorb spectacular, far-reaching views. In the monastery, view an illuminating film that portrays the daily life of the monks and visit the glorious basilica.	This tour includes moderate, uphill walking from the coach parking to the monastery, walking over mostly flat surfaces in the main square and downhill walking when returning to the coach. Please be advised that there will be a 15-minute walk from the parking area to the Sagrada Família and vice versa (30 minutes in total). The tour is not considered suitable for guests who utilise a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. Travel time to Montserrat is approximately 1 ½ hours by coach in each direction. Depending upon the ship's scheduled departure time, the Barcelona portion of this tour may be slightly adjusted.

Barcelona	Spain	BCN-011	Highlights	MONTJUIC TREASURES & CABLE CAR RIDE	$139	3	MODERATE	familiarise yourself with all of Spain without leaving Barcelona on a visit to El Poble Espanyol, an enchanting showcase of the country's varied architectural styles, and ascend the hill of Montjuïc in a cable car for marvellous views. After an approximately 15-minute panoramic city drive, you'll arrive at El Poble Espanyol, an atmospheric village that brings together the architectural heritage of Spain through 117 buildings and plazas representing the country's various regions. During your exploration, discover a picturesque town hall, church and monastery as well as wonderful buildings housing cafés and artisan shops displaying works in glass, ceramics and embroidery. You'll learn the charming village was built for the 1929 International Exposition and was meant to be demolished, but it proved so popular it was fortunately preserved for posterity. After approximately an hour, you'll transfer to a cable car station for a ride up the slopes of Montjuïc, absorbing amazing views of Barcelona along the way. Once at the top, join your guide for a short but pleasant uphill walk to the exterior of the 17th-century Montjuïc Castle, where you'll enjoy free time to snap photos or stroll the commanding fortification, a phenomenal spot for sweeping panoramas of dazzling Barcelona.	This tour includes approximately two hours of walking. There will be steep and uneven surfaces to negotiate. The tour may not be suitable for guests who utilise a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary. The operation of this excursion is dependent on weather conditions. Some crowding may be expected.
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-016	Highlights	BARCELONA'S ICONIC LANDMARKS	$169	7.5	STRENUOUS	Discover the landmarks of Barcelona on a wide-ranging exploration that includes two of Antoni Gaudí's UNESCO World Heritage sites, some free time in the Gothic Quarter and a visit to a recreated Spanish village. After a picturesque drive through the city, pause at Gaudí's unfinished masterpiece, the Sagrada Família, begun in 1883 and a cacophony of twisting columns, fanciful spires and stained glass windows. Along tony Passeig de Gràcia, you'll see Gaudí's kaleidoscopic Casa Batlló, a building that appears to be constructed from the bones of colossal marine creatures. For a dramatic contrast, spend some time at the atmospheric Gothic Quarter. Stroll its narrow streets and handsome squares, lined with medieval buildings and scattered about with remnants of walls and other constructions from an earlier Roman city. Enjoy a traditional Catalan lunch and continue to El Poble Espanyol, an atmospheric village constructed for the 1929 International Exposition that illustrates the architectural heritage of Spain through 117 buildings representing the country's various regions. During free time, browse artisan shops displaying works in glass, ceramics and embroidery. Conclude your comprehensive tour with a drive over Montjuïc, a forested hill that offers expansive views of Barcelona.	This tour includes approximately two hours of moderate walking/standing, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time and photo stops. There will be uneven surfaces and some steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair and is not considered suitable for guests with mobility concerns. Please be advised that there will be a 15-minute walk from the parking area to the Sagrada Família and viceversa (30 minutes in total).
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-021	Highlights	CLASSICAL CHOCOLATES & CAVA EXPERIENCE	$169	5	MODERATE	Delve into the world of chocolate and the sparkling wine cava, two classic Catalan products that are as traditional as they are delicious. During an enlightening tour of the Simón Coll chocolate factory, you will learn fascinating details about the chocolate-making process. A sampling follows, during which you will discover how texture and the percentage of cocoa affects the taste. You might also purchase favourites such as cocoa nibs, milk chocolate bars with almonds and delicacies such as chocolate in the shape of a cava bottle cork. The latter couldn't be more appropriate, as your next destination will be Pagès Entrena, a winery that has been making cava in a converted 18th-century paper mill since 1987. A tour of the winery will reveal much about cava, a sparkling wine made from indigenous Spanish grapes. You will gain insight into how the grapes are harvested, the process of fermentation and why the wine bottles are periodically turned by hand during storage.	This tour includes limited walking. It is available to guests who utilise a wheelchair who are able to make their way on and off the coach and have a companion to assist them. The Simon Coll factory is wheelchair accessible, however, there are 20 steps at the Pagès wine cellar. Guests are welcome to wait outside and enjoy the scenery if they do not wish to enter wine cellar. Restrooms are available at both stops. The order of the sites visited or viewed may vary.
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-037	Highlights	PANORAMIC BARCELONA BY NIGHT	$139	2	EASY	Experience the essence of Barcelona on this panoramic evening tour from the comfort of your motor coach. Your drive begins at the pier, where you'll immediately dive into the city's rich history. Marvel at the iconic Columbus Monument and the vibrant Old Port as you make your way to the impressive Arc de Triomf and the serene Ciutadella Park—both legacies of the 1888 World Exhibition. This park once served as the city's protective garrison. As you continue your journey, you'll pass by the renowned Passeig de Gràcia, a tribute to modernism, where Antoni Gaudí's masterpieces, Casa Milà and Casa Batlló, await your admiration. Continue through Plaça Espanya, passing the Fair and Congress Palace and the elegant Maria Cristina Avenue, as you ascend Montjuïc Hill. Here, you'll stop for photos of the breathtaking panoramic views of the city before returning to the pier, leaving you with unforgettable memories of Barcelona's beauty and charm.	It is available to guests who utilise a collapsible wheelchair, can make their way on and off the coach and have a companion to assist them. The order of the sites visited or viewed may vary.
Barcelona	Spain	BCN-GL4	Active	GL-MONTJUIC WALK & BARCELONA'S VIEWS	$139	4	MODERATE	Enjoy a leisurely, mostly downhill walk from Montjuïc hill to historical Plaza España while admiring the lovely views and attractions in between. The lookout atop the hill presents a sweeping panorama of Barcelona all the way to the sea, which will give you an excellent understanding of how the city lays out. As you follow the descending footpath, you will soon pass the ramparts of Montjuïc Castle, a 17th-century fortress that played a key role in the War of the Spanish Succession. The guide will elaborate on Barcelona's history and most intriguing landmarks such as the iconic La Sagrada Família basilica as you descend to the beautifully terraced Mirador de l'Alcalde lookout and on to the National Palace. The domed Spanish Renaissance-style building was constructed for the 1929 Barcelona International Exposition and now houses the National Art Museum of Catalonia. The nearby Plaza España was also built for the exposition. The bullring there is now a shopping centre.	This tour includes approximately 3 hours of walking. It is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-001	Highlights	PALMA CITY HIGHLIGHTS	$129	4.5	MODERATE	Delve into Mallorca's grand capital city of Palma on a guided visit to two stunning Gothic landmarks, La Seu Cathedral and Bellver Castle, and stop at a purveyor of Majorcan pearls. Enter resilient Palma, a city repeatedly invaded over the centuries due to its strategic position in the Mediterranean, and learn how each conqueror left their mark at La Seu, the city's spectacular Gothic cathedral. You'll delight in its enormous rose window, which casts a beautiful light into the church, and the wrought-iron canopy over the main altar, which was designed by idiosyncratic Catalan architect Antonio Gaudí. Enjoy a guided stroll to the city centre, where you'll discover an imitation pearl shop and learn the process behind the manufacture of these remarkable jewels. After some free time to shop and wander, continue to Bellver Castle, a revered 14th-century Gothic landmark. Gaze in awe at its unusual round design and seemingly impregnable fortifications, punctuated by towers of varying heights, and find a patio with a double gallery of arches, the Capella de San Marc chapel and the Palma History Museum. You'll celebrate the Gothic treasures of Palma on this enlightening tour.	This tour includes approximately 2 ½ hours of easy-to-moderate walking, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be some uneven surfaces and numerous steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. On Sunday calls, only exterior visits are possible at the cathedral.

Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-003	Highlights	THE CAVES OF DRACH, AN UNDERGROUND WORLD	$209	5	STRENUOUS	Explore one of Europe's largest cave systems and shop for renowned Majorcan pearls on this survey of the island's extraordinary gifts. Relax during a leisurely drive through the countryside past windmills and farms to the spellbinding Coves del Drach, a series of spacious interconnected caverns of otherworldly ambience. You'll wander among unusual formations with fanciful names like the Fairies' Theater and Diana's Bath, and learn that the cave's massive stalactites and stalagmites have grown a mere half-inch since being fully explored in the 1880s, a testament to the prehistoric age of the caverns. Discover one of the world's largest subterranean lakes, Llac Martel, which shimmers supernaturally due to strategically placed lights shining from above. Back above ground, tour a traditional Majorcan imitation pearl factory and gain invaluable insight into the manufacture of these coveted ornaments, which are crafted from natural marine products and are nearly indistinguishable from the real thing. You'll appreciate the lustrous quality of Majorcan pearls, manufactured since the 19th century, and contemplate the many pleasant surprises found both above and below ground in enthralling Mallorca.	This tour includes approximate two hours of moderate walking. There may be some slippery surfaces, along with a few steps, to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Caves will be explored independently without a guide and are not exclusive to our guests.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-004	Highlights	PANORAMIC VALLDEMOSA	$149	4	MODERATE	Venture into the Majorcan countryside and discover a magnificent monastery, an imitation pearl factory and a photo-worthy Gothic Castle. You'll travel through a landscape of mountains and plains brimming with almond and olive trees en route to Valldemossa, a serene town that has inspired artists for generations. Arrive at the splendid Cartoixa de Valldemossa, a former Carthusian monastery perched 1,200 feet above the Musa Valley, and embark on an approximately one-hour tour of the sanctuary. You'll learn the stone-built structure dates to 1309, with its church added in the 15th century, and that in the winter of 1838-39, Aurora Dupin, who went by the nom de plume George Sand, along with her lover, Frédéric Chopin, spent three months here hoping to conquer the composer's tuberculosis. In the town of Valldemossa, enjoy time on your own with an opportunity to visit a traditional Majorcan imitation pearl shop for invaluable insight into the manufacture of these coveted ornaments. During your return to Palma, you'll stop to capture photos of Bellver Castle, a revered 14th-century Gothic landmark. Gaze in awe at its unusual round design and seemingly impregnable fortifications, punctuated by towers of varying heights, another highlight of endlessly bewitching Mallorca.	This tour includes approximately 90 minutes of easy-to moderate-walking, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be some uneven surfaces and a few steps to negotiate. The tour is available to guests who utilise a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to participate only to the extent of their personal ability and stamina and may make arrangements with the guide to not take part in some of the walking portions of the tour. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-006	Highlights	SOLLER VINTAGE TRAIN RIDE	$199	4	MODERATE	Experience Mallorca's dramatic scenery on this tour to the fetching village of Sóller that includes free time and a fabulous vintage train ride. Relax during an approximately one-hour drive to Sóller, a peaceful and scenic town nestled at the foot of rugged mountains. You'll learn that its location in the lush Serra de Tramuntana Valley has long attracted visitors, writers and artists lured by the gorgeous setting, favorable light, refreshingly cool mountain air and laidback way of life. Upon arrival, you'll enjoy a guided tour of the town centre followed by time at your leisure to explore or do some shopping. As an unforgettable conclusion to your excursion, hop aboard the vintage Palma-Sóller train, an old-fashioned wooden conveyance that has preserved its traditional character for over a century. Rejoice in a ride of approximately 50 minutes as your train languidly traverses Mallorca's entrancing countryside, a resplendent patchwork of orange and olive groves, almond and locust-bean trees, enchanting villages and pine-covered mountains. Surrender to the idyllic charms of Mallorca on this fascinating outing filled with wonders both natural and man-made.	This tour includes approximately one hour of moderate walking, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be some uneven surfaces, numerous steps and a slight incline to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns, who are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. While there are restrooms available at the train station in Sóller, there are none on the train. The tour may be operated in reverse.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-008	Highlights	PALMA, TAPAS & FLAMENCO SHOW	$189	4.5	MODERATE	View landmarks of Palma de Mallorca and thrill to an authentic flamenco performance while being treated to delicious traditional tapas. Make your way to the city centre aboard your coach, passing alluring sights during a comfortable, panoramic ride, and get acquainted with this lively city. Stop for some pictures in front of La Seu, the city's utterly magnificent cathedral, located by the sea and impressed by its spectacular gothic architecture. Relish some free time. Prior To experience the true spirit of Spain: you'll savour a typical tapas lunch served with sangria, all while enjoying a rousing flamenco performance. Applaud this exhilarating dance, a stirring blend of clicking heels and castanets, Spanish guitar and emotive bravado, a perfect encapsulation of the impassioned and irrepressible soul of this magical land.	This tour includes approximately one hour of moderate walking/standing, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during the photo stop. There will be uneven surfaces and a few steps to negotiate. The tour is available to guests who utilise a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Participants must be at least 21 years of age to be served alcoholic beverages.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-009	Active	BIKE RIDE THROUGH OLD TOWN	$229	4	STRENUOUS	Discover that there's no better way to reveal the myriad charms of Palma de Mallorca's Old Quarter than on an exploration by bicycle. After receiving an informative briefing and boarding your two-wheeled vehicle, you'll set off from the Maritime Promenade toward the city's ancient walls. Continue to the impressive Gothic cathedral, La Seu, and pedal into the Old Quarter, passing compelling highlights such as the Església de Sant Francesc church, the Plaça Major and the Plaça d'Espanya. As you ride around, you'll see locals going about their daily business and familiarise yourself with life in the historic yet forward-looking city of Palma. Conclude your invigorating tour of the town's monuments, squares, gardens and palaces at the pier, visions of captivating Palma still lingering pleasantly in your mind.	This tour includes approximately three hours of bicycling. Participants should be in good physical condition. Guests should be experienced bike riders and have recently ridden or be confident on a bicycle. Participants must also be comfortable with hand brakes and riding downhill. All participants must sign a waiver of liability. Helmets are provided and are mandatory. The operation of this excursion is dependent on prevailing weather conditions.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-011	Active	HIKE TO BEAUTIFUL BANYALBUFAR	$129	4	STRENUOUS	Experience Mallorca's sublime scenery by trekking along one of the island's most breathtaking paths to the quaint seaside village of Banyalbufar. After an approximately 30-minute scenic transfer to the village of Esporles, a leafy and quiet hamlet set in a pastoral valley, you'll begin your walk on a historic trail possibly used as far back as the 15th century. As you set off, envision the postmen of yore carrying the era's precious and only form of long-distance communication from village to village along this very same route. Wind through a pine forest and commence a slight ascent, at which point the trail will provide glimpses of traditional Majorcan rural structures, including striking stone walls that are emblematic of the island. You'll traverse appealingly verdant landscapes, inching ever closer to the island's west coast. Eventually, arrive at unspoiled Banyalbufar, which perches above the sparkling Mediterranean and enchants with its terraced gardens that cascade toward the sea.	This tour includes approximately three hours hiking over uneven and sometimes steep terrain. Participants should be in good physical condition. The tour is not recommended for guests with mobility concerns. Guests must be a minimum of 12 years old. The operation of this excursion is dependent on prevailing weather conditions. Your return to the ship will be via coach.

Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-012	Active	SEA KAYAKING IN CALVIA	$219	4	STRENUOUS	Exult in wonderful views of Mallorca's shoreline on this exhilarating sea kayaking adventure off the coast of the island, and stop at a serene beach to relax at your leisure. After an approximately 30-minute drive, you'll reach the launching point of your kayaking experience. Learn basic paddling techniques from your knowledgeable instructor and receive your gear, after which you'll settle into your kayak and set off over the aquamarine waters for approximately two hours. Glide over the tranquil and glistening sea, admiring the rugged and quintessentially Mediterranean coastal terrain, perhaps coming across one of the many picturesque rocky outcroppings that rise out of the transparent waters. You'll stop briefly at an isolated beach for a chance to relax and appreciate the stunning scenery, soaking up the spellbinding beauty of this glittering island.	This active excursion is only recommended for guests who are physically fit and can walk and swim unassisted. Children 12 years old and under must be accompanied by an adult or guardian. All participants must sign a waiver of liability. Alcoholic beverages should not be consumed prior to taking part in any water activities. Guests who participate in any water activities do so at their own risk and responsibility. As you may get wet on this excursion, it is advised that any electronic devices and valuables be stored in a sealable, waterproof dry bag or left onboard the ship. Any damage occurring to these items is the responsibility of the guest. The operation of this excursion is dependent on prevailing weather conditions. Kayaking time is approximately two hours. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-013	Highlights	MALLORCA BEACH TRANSFER	$79	4	EASY	Indulge in ample time at your leisure at one of Mallorca's lovely beaches, undoubtedly the main reason visitors flock to this dazzling island. You'll journey by coach to a gorgeous stretch of sand, among the Mediterranean's finest, and revel in the opportunity to determine how much or how little to do. You can stroll along the serene shoreline, sunbathe on the soft sands, relax in the shade with a good book or simply take in the inspiring ambiance. Of course, you might feel the call of the island's gin-clear waters, renowned throughout Spain for their pristine beauty. However you choose to spend your time, you're certain to return to your ship newly invigorated.	This tour includes limited walking, mainly at the guest's discretion. It is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-014	Highlights	VALDEMOSA & SOLLER WITH LUNCH	$269	7	MODERATE	Applaud two charming Majorcan villages and take a delightful vintage train ride on this splendid excursion with lunch. You'll travel through a beautifully scenic landscape en route to Valldemossa, a serene town that has inspired artists for generations. Arrive at the imposing Cartoixa de Valldemossa, a former Carthusian monastery dating to 1309 that perches 1,200 feet above the Musa Valley. You'll learn that in the winter of 1838-39, the author George Sand and Frédéric Chopin spent three months here hoping to conquer the composer's tuberculosis. See artifacts belonging to the pair at an on-site museum, as well as a small chapel, a medieval pharmacy and the monks' library. After visiting Valldemossa's striking Palau del Rei Sanç palace, you'll enjoy lunch in a local restaurant. Continue to appealing Sóller, where you'll view the outstanding church, which was designed by a pupil of Antoni Gaudí, and appreciate time on your own to shop and explore the quaint town. Hop aboard the vintage Palma-Sóller train, an old-fashioned wooden conveyance that has preserved its traditional character for over a century, and rejoice in a ride of approximately 50 minutes as you languidly traverse Mallorca's entrancing countryside.	This tour includes approximately two miles of walking. There will be uneven surfaces, some steps and slight inclines to negotiate. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary in order to avoid congestion at the venues or due to availability of the train. Travel time to Valldemossa is approximately 30 minutes each way, dependent upon traffic conditions.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-022	Highlights	GASTRONOMY WITH GUSTO	$269	5	EASY	Take in the staggering array of culinary treats at Palma's primary market and sample an inspiring selection of delicacies at a gastronomic kitchen space within the market. A leisurely walk will bring you to Olivar Market, where you will behold a cornucopia of garden-fresh fruits and vegetables, Mallorcan-made cheeses and succulent seafood. Being the city's main market, it is always abuzz with locals shopping. While meandering about, you will gain great insight into the gastronomy of Palma. Many of the vendors have their own boats, ensuring the freshest seafood. Local farmers supply the produce, and artisans make the bulk of the sausages and cheeses. Olivar Market is an extraordinary destination to observe daily life as the residents engage in lively conversation and a bit of friendly haggling with the vendors. Following this eye-opening introduction to the market, you will head for a local restaurant to taste an array of representative Mallorcan foods.	The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, can make their own way on and off the vehicle and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. This tour includes approximately 1.5 hours of walking and few steps to negotiate. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.
Palma de Mallorca	Spain	PMI-023	Highlights	A PASSION FOR WINE	$259	5	EASY	Sample a thoughtfully chosen selection of wines at Tianna Negre, a vineyard that produces several lines of wine made with indigenous Mallorcan grapes. This family-owned and operated winery originally planted all Manto Negro grapes. As you will discover while touring the estate, other grape varieties now flourish in its two vineyards. In fact, Tianna Negre is dedicated to recovering native Palma grape varieties that disappeared following the phylloxera scourge that destroyed countless vineyards in the 19th century. During brunch and a tasting in the cellar, you can expect to sample as many as a half-dozen wines that reflect the terroir, especially the lime-rich, clay textured soil. You may be served a namesake Tianna Negre red blend made from Manto Negro and Syrah grapes, a Tianna Blanc with notes of ripe fruit from Giró Ros grapes and a pink rosé with hints of grapefruit.	The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, can make their own way on and off the vehicle and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. This tour includes approximately 1.5 hours of walking and few steps to negotiate. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.

Valencia	Spain	VLC-012	Highlights	BOCAIRENT: A GLIMPSE TO THE MEDIEVAL	$129	5.5	MODERATE	Discover the medieval charm of Bocairent, a hilltop village built almost entirely of stone, including a bullring that was carved from solid rock in the 19th century. It took the villagers years to complete the excavation, but the bullring is still used today. Because almost every building is constructed from rock or carved into rock, Bocairent has an engaging medieval ambiance. The historic quarter is particularly atmospheric, as it was laid out in an Arabic style that reflects a Moorish influence. The streets twist and turn, rise and fall and often end in charming squares and cul-de-sacs. While sometimes challenging to negotiate, Bocairent's old quarter is visually breathtaking, especially from areas that offer panoramic views of the countryside. To enhance your appreciation of the local culture, you will visit a local artisan shop that makes regional liquors such as anise-flavoured herbero from mountain flora. While tasting his concoctions, you can't help but marvel at the setting—his shop is inside a cave.	This tour includes about 2½ hours of walking. It is not recommended for guests who utilise a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns should evaluate their ability and stamina before joining the tour. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.
Valencia	Spain	VLC-016	Highlights	PANORAMIC VALENCIA	$99	2.5	EASY	Uncover glorious Valencia, viewing its outstanding landmarks before spending time on your own in the historic heart of the city. Take a leisurely drive past some of Valencia's most iconic sites, such as the state-of-the-art Marina Real Juan Carlos I, which accommodates nearly 650 yachts and was built to host the America's Cup. You'll wind through downtown Valencia and marvel at architect Santiago Calatrava's astonishing City of Arts and Sciences, five distinct, extraordinary buildings linked by a common design concept that comprise Europe's largest cultural-educational complex. See the 15th-century Torres de Quart, once part of Valencia's ancient defensive city walls. You'll pass the striking Estación del Norte, the city's main railway station. Cherish the bustling Gaudi-inspired art nouveau Columbus Market, which is adorned with colourful window panels and mosaics and gives you an authentic snapshot of Valencia's daily life. Following your panoramic journey through the city, savour nearly an hour of free time in the historic city centre to shop or simply soak up the sophisticated atmosphere.	This tour is primarily panoramic in nature with walking at the guest's discretion during stops and free time. The tour is available to guests who utilise a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them.
Valencia	Spain	VLC-019	Highlights	TREASURES OF THE ALBUFERA: ANNA	$99	4	MODERATE	Explore a fabulous Moorish palace known the "Alhambra of Valencia" and a nearby lake teeming with wildlife. The nickname of the Palace of the Counts of Cervellon is derived from its elaborate Islamic decorations, which include ceramic mosaics, coffered ceilings and exquisite plasterwork similar to the features found in the larger, more famous Alhambra in Granada. The architecture exudes history as do the museums within the palace, one of which is ethnological in nature. For a glimpse into the natural world, you will visit the Albufera of Anna, a recreational lake within a serene reserve. The vegetation ranges from pine forests to banana groves, a setting that attracts all sorts of animals. Birds are particularly prevalent in the surrounding wetlands, and you may spot herons, ducks and geese. Birds such as grebes and plovers also pause here during their long migratory journeys.	This tour includes approximately 1 hour and 45 minutes of moderate walking/standing. Guests will need to manage flat and uneven surfaces as well as 4 steps throughout the excursion. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns who are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina and ability.
Valencia	Spain	VLC-020	Highlights	TUK-TUK THROUGH VALENCIA	$109	2.5	EASY	See the real Valencia by comfortably riding around town in a tuk-tuk, an open-air vehicle that resembles an oversized golf cart. It is the ultimate way to become immersed in the rhythms of the city as you travel through this city that the Romans founded more than 2,000 years ago. During stops along the way, you might experience the Central Market, which incredibly has been on the same site since the 13th century, and the modern City of Art and Sciences, Valencia's cultural hub. That's the kind of diversity that makes this jaunt around the city so enthralling. You can also expect to pause for photos at Serrano Towers, the largest Gothic gateway in Europe, and the city's medieval cathedral, which was built on land that El Cid dedicated to the blessed Virgin. The Palau de la Música is another iconic building as its contemporary design features a huge glass dome that has become a symbol of the city.	This tour includes limited walking, mainly at the participant's discretion. Guests must be able to get in and out the tuk-tuk on their own. It is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. For these guests, the photo stop and walk through the Old Quarter can be replaced by extended driving. Each tuk-tuk can accommodate up to four participants and one driver/guide. Guests will have the opportunity to stay in town and return to the ship on their own or they can take the tuk-tuk return ride to the pier.
Valencia	Spain	VLC-023	Highlights	VALENCIA & DELIGHTFUL TAPAS	$209	4.25	MODERATE	Dine on a selection of tapas and thoughtfully paired wines at two restaurants following an enlightening drive through downtown. The Romans founded Valencia more than 2,000 years ago, and today the city boasts a wonderful mix of historical and modern attractions. They range from the medieval Valencia cathedral to the City of Arts and Sciences, Valencia's cultural hub. You will dine at two traditional restaurants that source their ingredients in La Horta, a flourishing agricultural region with thousands of farmland plots and Spain's largest lake, Albufera, which supplies abundant seafood. Although the tapas ingredients will be determined the day of the excursion based on the season, they often include rock mussels, Valencia-style calamari and anchovies. Dessert may be sponge cake topped with caramelized pastry cream. Red and white wines will also be served to complement the tapas.	Any allergies must be noted when booking the tour. This tour includes approximately 30 minutes of walking and standing, plus any additional walking at the guests' discretion. The restaurant as well as the walk to the bus passing through the town hall square is paved. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, can make their way on and off the bus, and have a companion to assist them. Those with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their stamina and ability carefully. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

Ibiza	Spain	IBZ-015	Local Discovery	SANT JOSEP VILLAGE, VIEWS & LUNCH	$209	5	EASY	Settle in for a panoramic drive across Ibiza and explore some of its most enchanting villages before enjoying lunch at a beachfront restaurant. A winding road through pine-forested mountains will bring you to Sant Josep, a beach-blessed village nestled in the foothills. It is a wonderfully scenic setting with white-washed houses and medieval churches. Farther down the coast, you will pause to admire Es Vedra, a petite nearly 100-year-old lighthouse on a rocky island whose only inhabitants are goats. Sant Antoni de Portmany is another village on Ibiza's western coast and it has become quite the foodie destination. Fishermen unload their catch daily and the local agricultural cooperative supplies a bounty of seasonal produce. While dining at a family-owned waterfront restaurant that overlooks the Sant Antoni Yacht Club, you will taste the difference that fresh, locally sourced ingredients make. Lovely inland villages are also plentiful as you will see while later passing through Santa Gertrudis.	Any allergies must be noted when booking the tour. Ibiza	Spain	IBZ-017	Highlights	SALT MUSEUM & GOURMET DINING	$279	5	EASY	Gain an understanding of how salt has provided immense wealth to Ibiza for centuries and enjoy a gourmet meal in one of the premier restaurants in Old Town. For a historical perspective of how salt has long been extracted from the ponds at Las Salinas on the island's southern tip, you will browse the Sant Francesc Interpretation centre. The exhibits depict in fascinating detail how salt was once manually extracted, a time-consuming process that is now mechanized. One of the primary uses for the salt was to preserve fish, especially cod in northern Europe. You will have lunch in front of the sea at Casa Manolo, one of the most loved restaurants by locals and travellers. With the Mediterranean sea touching the shore just a few metres away, and the irresistible aroma of freshly cooked rice, you will experience a meal that is pure pleasure, all served with love, wine and views that steal a sigh. Casa Manolo is an open secret, a place where tradition is served on the plate and the sea is part of the menu. During free time in the surrounding area, you might shop in the fashionable boutiques and see the 16th-century walls built to protect Old Town.	PLEASE NOTE Any allergies must be noted when booking the tour. Coaches do not have a lift, and entering and exiting must be done via stairs. This tour includes some walking and standing. Therefore, those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.
Ibiza	Spain	IBZ-018	Highlights	IBIZA 4X4 DISCOVERY	$269	4.5	STRENUOUS	Indulge your sense of adventure by riding into the gorgeous countryside in an open-air Jeep. Once you reach Ibiza's southern coast, you will stop briefly at Sa Caleta, a beautiful cove with red cliffs that shelter the horseshoe-shaped beach. The excavated Phoenician settlement there is so impressive that UNESCO declared it a World Heritage site. As you will discover nearby, seaside Cala Jondal attracts a well-heeled crowd that comes for the trendy boutiques, restaurants and spectacular stretch of sand. Travelling westward will present you with a different perspective of the island that includes a look at Es Vedrà, a high rocky isle off the coast. Upon arriving at the breathtaking beach Cala Comte, you will enjoy free time to swim in the sea, which is so clear that it earned a prestigious Blue Flag for its water quality. As a bonus, you will pause at Ibiza's highest point to take in the sweeping views.	Participants must be at least 8 years of age and weigh no more than 250 lbs. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, guests with mobility concerns, recent back or neck injuries, heart conditions, epilepsy, and pregnant women. Ibiza	Spain	IBZ-019	Active	KAYAK ADVENTURE	$169	4	MODERATE	Paddle a kayak off the beautiful southeastern coast of Ibiza and then relax as you please on sheltered Talamanca Beach, where you launched the kayak. Your seaside adventure will begin with an enlightening walk along the shore, during which the guide will describe the vast meadows of Neptune seagrass that you will see growing in the shallow waters. The species – also known as Posidonia oceanica – is endemic to the Mediterranean Sea and vital to the marine environment as it slows coastal erosion, sequesters carbon, oxygenates the water and regulates sea temperatures. You will get a closer look at this protected, yet endangered plant while kayaking over it. The views will be just as spectacular above the water's surface as you will paddle past sea caves, pebbly beaches and gorgeous Cap Martinet, perhaps the island's most affluent residential area. Back on Talamanca Beach, you will be free to enjoy this lengthy stretch of sand at your leisure.	This tour requires a moderate amount of activity and participants should be in good physical condition. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, guests with mobility concerns, recent back or neck injuries, heart conditions, epilepsy, diabetes or respiratory conditions. Minimum age to participate is 12 years of age. Maximum weight limit is 253 lbs. Maximum height limit is 6' 4.8. Weather-appropriate clothing, swimsuit, towel, a change of clothing; sun caps; sunglasses, bottled water and sunscreen are recommended.
Ibiza	Spain	IBZ-022	Highlights	CRYSTAL WATERS OF FORMENTERA	$149	7	MODERATE	Escape to the naturally beautiful and wonderfully serene island of Formentera, where you will spend hours exploring on your own. A ferry will take you due south to this smallest part of the Balearic Islands, which is known for its blissful laidback ambiance. Continuing, you will enjoy a brief but scenic drive to the seaside town of Es Pujols, you will be free to wander about as you please at your own pace. You could spend the entire time on the urban beach or just shop for casual clothing if you prefer. Many of the boutiques carry one-of-a-kind merchandise such as handmade jewellery. The options for dining are just as plentiful with seafood being on virtually every menu. As you might expect, the restaurants overlooking the sea are the most popular.	This tour includes a ferry ride and is not recommended to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Coaches do not have a lift, and entering and exiting must be done via stairs. Guests are expected to be ready for the return transfer at the scheduled time. Ibiza	Spain	IBZ-023	Active	COASTAL TREKKING TO TALAMANCA BEACH	$49	3.5	STRENUOUS	Follow a circuitous coastal trail to a crescent-shaped beach just north of Ibiza and enjoy a mix of urban and naturally beautiful views along the way. The walk will begin right at the pier and cover about six miles, so you will see many of the main attractions that define the area. As you stroll along the northern edge of the harbour, you will pass exclusive Marina Botafoch, where hundreds of luxury yachts are berthed. Talamanca Beach lies just around the corner and is wildly popular because it is so close to downtown. A wooden boardwalk runs the entire length of the beach so you won't have to walk in the sand. In time, the landscape will become more rugged and the trail rockier as you head towards the dramatic cliffs at Cap Martinet. After a break to relax at the serene cove that marks the halfway point, you will retrace your footsteps.	This tour includes approximately 2 hours of walking. It is not recommended to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Guests should be in good physical condition to participate in the tour. It is recommended to bring sunscreen and a bottle of water. Participants must be 18 years of age to consume alcohol.

Your guide will lead you on a pleasant walk to a photo viewpoint for breathtaking views of Catalan Bay on the Rock's eastern flank. Then, take a 20-minute hike along a wooded path to St. Michael's Cave. You'll explore this wondrous cavern for a half-hour or so before continuing on to the famous Apes' Den for an up-close encounter with tailless Barbary macaques in their natural environment. From here, the tour shifts into panoramic mode as our minibus picks you up for a sightseeing drive past Princess Caroline's Battery and to visit sections of the Great Siege Tunnels, hand-excavated in 1782-83 by the Brits and still considered the most impressive defensive system ever devised. The return to town passes the great medieval Moorish Castle. Once down, you can choose to stay on awhile in Old Town or transfer back to the ship.	This tour involves some 1.5 miles of moderate walking. The walk to St. Michael's Cave takes approximately 20 minutes and includes 75 steps at the entrance; another 30 minutes is spent walking within the cave. The wait to board the cable car can be 20-30 minutes. Those with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Guests who elect to stay in town are responsible for making their own way back to the pier. The transportation in Gibraltar does not have room to store wheelchairs or walkers.

Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-002	Highlights	THE ROCK	$199	2	EASY	Join us for this scenic and informative tour of the many fascinating sites found on the Rock of Gibraltar. The British influenced, Rock of Gibraltar is situated in the Mediterranean Sea. The Rock was named in 711 AD, when it was captured by the Moorish chieftain, Tarik, and became known as the Rock of Tarik, or Gib el Tarik. After successive Moorish, Spanish and British invasions, its name was changed to Gibraltar. Depart the ship for a drive along Winston Churchill Avenue, passing the Cross of Sacrifice along the way. You will also see the airstrip, where only flights emanating from the UK are permitted to land. Next, you will drive down the Queen's Road, home to panoramic vistas of the picturesque harbour, then up to St. Michael's Caves, a series of underground chambers filled with stalactites and stalagmites. Continue on for a visit to the Ape's Den to view its collection of famous Barbary apes and tailless Moroccan monkeys. Popular legend has it that as long as the apes continue to thrive here, Britain will retain control of Gibraltar. When their population was threatened, Winston Churchill issued orders for the maintenance of the ape colony. To this day, there remains a designated Officer of the Apes, who feeds them at 8:00 AM and 4:00 PM, daily.	This tour involves approximately 300 yards of walking and 75 steps to enter St. Michael's Cave. The cave can be viewed from the exit. Guests who elect to stay in town will be responsible for making their own way back to the pier. The transportation in Gibraltar does not have room to store wheelchairs or walkers.
Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-003	Highlights	CRUISING THE BAY OF GIBRALTAR - DOLPHIN WATCH	$199	2	EASY	Join us for a delightful journey as we explore the dolphins and abundant sea life surrounding Gibraltar. This tour begins with a quick transfer by mini coach from the pier to the marina. Upon arrival, you will board your boat and sail to the Straits and Bay of Gibraltar. A resident naturalist will accompany the tour, and provide commentary on the region's sea fauna, topography, and species you might encounter. Keep your eyes peeled for the dolphins that live in the area, including the striped and bottle-nosed dolphins. On rare occasions, whales may also be observed as they migrate through the Straits from the Mediterranean Sea to the Atlantic Ocean. Whale species sighted in the area include sperm, fin, pilot, orca, and Minke whales. Next, the boat will then sail past the Europa Point Lighthouse to the eastern side of Gibraltar to view Gorham's Cave. Afterward, you will reboard the mini coach for the return drive to the pier.	As with all wildlife tours, marine life sightings cannot be guaranteed. This tours operation is dependent on cooperative weather. This tour requires very little walking and no steps to climb. The sightseeing boat has a bar for beverage purchases, as well as restrooms. Guests who elect to stay in town will be responsible for making their own way back to the pier. The transportation in Gibraltar does not have room to store wheelchairs or walkers.
Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-004	Highlights	A CITY UNDER SIEGE	$219	3.5	MODERATE	Travel by cable car to the summit of The Rock for a tour focused on the turbulent history of the fortress that is Gibraltar. It starts with a breathtaking ride up to the Top Station, site of a World War II anti-aircraft gun battery. You'll take in the terrace views as your seasoned guide provides background on this British colony at the entrance to the Mediterranean. Returning to Middle Station, you'll visit the Apes' Den for an up-close encounter with tailless Barbary macaques, then board your excursion coach for a drive past Princess Caroline's Battery and a walk-through portions of the Great Siege Tunnels, hand-excavated in 1782-83 by the forerunners of the Royal Engineers and still considered one of the most impressive defensive systems ever devised. Driving on, you'll visit ""A City Under Siege"" – an enlightening historical exhibition housed in the earliest British buildings on Gibraltar. Having learned much of The Rock's story, you can now either explore further independently in Old Town or transfer back to the ship. Highlights	This tour includes a moderate amount of walking over uneven surfaces, with numerous steps to negotiate (approximately 60). It is not available for wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns. Guests who do not wish to enter the Siege Tunnel complex are welcome to stay behind on the bus or take in the views nearby.
Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-005	Highlights	PANORAMIC GIBRALTAR AND TAPAS	$149	2	EASY	This unique tour combines a tour of Gibraltar's unique sights with a sampling of its delicious Spanish culinary flavour. Setting out from the pier by panoramic coach, you'll take a scenic drive out to Gibraltar's unique airport runway, which doubles as the border between this small British colony and the Spanish mainland. travelling on toward Catalan Bay along the colony's eastern flank, you'll admire spectacular views that reach all the way to Spain in one direction and Africa in the other. Passing the American War Memorial that honours Britain and America's winning alliance in World War I and the Trafalgar Cemetry from far earlier, you'll work your way toward the land's very tip at Europa Point. From this viewpoint, with the coast of North Africa just 12 miles across the famous Strait, you'll fully appreciate why this territory has always been of such strategic importance to the British Navy. Having drunk in all these sights, your next stop is at a local dining venue where you can sip a glass of wine and indulge in a delicious selection of traditional tapas. This colony may be English, but the cuisine is pure Mediterranean.	This tour includes limited walking, mainly at guests' discretion. The tour ends with a return transfer to the ship; guests who opt to remain in town instead will be responsible for making their own way back to the pier. The transportation in Gibraltar does not have room to store wheelchairs or walkers.
Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-008	Active	GIBRALTAR WITH LESS WALKING & ENGLISH TEA	$149	2	EASY	If you prefer your Gibraltar with a minimum of walking, this outing fits the bill – and includes a true British cultural rite as well. You'll experience a voyage across the town's airport runway, one of the smallest in the world, and into Gibraltar's Spanish Frontier. On a drive along Devil's Tower Road, you'll skirt The Rock's magnificent north face. One gaze up at this towering wall of limestone, and you'll see clearly why this tiny colony has presented would-be invaders with such an imposing obstacle for centuries. You'll see the small fishing village of Catalan Bay on Gibraltar's eastern shore and pass the American War Memorial that honours Britain and America's alliance in World War I, along with the Trafalgar Cemetry from far earlier. From Europa Point on the peninsula's southern tip, you'll see historic Trinity Lighthouse and, on a clear day, glimpse the coast of North Africa just 12 miles across the famous Strait where Atlantic and Mediterranean waters meet. After this cavalcade of sights, the excursion proceeds to the renowned Rock Hotel to savour the quintessentially English repast: piping hot tea served with a tempting array of finger sandwiches, cakes and scones.	This tour is purposefully panoramic, with occasional photo stops but little walking involved. The order of sights visited may vary. The transportation in Gibraltar does not have room to store wheelchairs or walkers.
Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-010	Highlights	A CITY UNDER SIEGE - NO CABLE CAR	$199	3.5	MODERATE	Enjoy a rolling Gibraltar excursion that visits landmarks closely tied to the history of this fortress colony. Your seasoned guide will provide backstories and insights about momentous events that took place over the centuries in this famously small, formidable outpost. First up is a visit to the sanctuary of Gibraltar's oldest inhabitants, the tailless Barbary apes. You'll get an up-close dose of their enchanting antics at the Apes' Den, halfway up The Rock. A short drive further is historic Princess Caroline's Battery and the entrance to the Great Siege Tunnels, carved out of solid limestone by the forerunners of the Royal Engineers in 1782-83 and still considered one of the most impressive defensive systems ever devised. You'll take a fascinating walk inside, through Windsor Gallery to St. George's Hall. Now, having learned much about The Rock, you can explore Old Town further independently or transfer back to the ship.	This tour includes a moderate amount of walking over uneven surfaces, with numerous steps to negotiate (approximately 60). It is not available to wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns. Participants should be in good physical condition. Guests who do not wish to enter the Siege Tunnel complex are welcome to stay behind on the bus or take in the views nearby. When visiting the Rock Apes, keep your possessions close as these are wild animals. Also, please do not touch or feed them.

Gibraltar	United Kingdom	GIB-GG1	Highlights	GG-WILDLIFE CONSERVATION PARK	$99	3.5	MODERATE	Meander through Gibraltar's only wildlife park on your own, observing endangered indigenous species and exotic animals that were confiscated after being illegally brought into the British Overseas Territory. The park lies within the Alameda Botanic Gardens, another setting that celebrates biodiversity. Following an introduction describing the park's mission to protect the environment and promote sustainable living, you will be welcome to explore at your leisure. You may view mammals such as cotton-topped tamarins, pot-bellied pigs and Barbary macaques, the same species of primates that famously roam the rocks of Gibraltar. Birds are also well-represented at the park and you can expect to see sulphur-crested cockatoos, Indian peafowl and Alexandrine parrots. The park also cares for injured native animals such as Barbary partridges and red foxes until they can be released into the Gibraltar Nature Reserve. If you wish to sponsor an animal, you will receive a personalised certificate and brief background of the animal.	This tour includes a moderate amount of walking over some hilly terrain and steps at the wildlife park, mainly at the guest's discretion. It is not recommended for guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.
Tangier	Morocco	TNG-001	Highlights	HIGHLIGHTS OF TANGIER	$179	4	MODERATE	Treasure the dazzling vistas and intriguing international culture of Tangier as you travel to an impressive lighthouse and spellbinding caves imbued with Roman mythology, roam its delightful medina and shop at an exotic bazaar on this captivating tour. Embark on a splendidly scenic drive past beautiful villas, the governor's residence and the king's summer palace on your way to mountaintop Cap Spartel, where you'll stop to admire a dominating stone lighthouse and enjoy magnificent views of the rocky coastline and the Strait of Gibraltar's sapphire waters. You'll visit the world-famous Caves of Hercules where, according to legend, the mythical Roman hero rested during the 12 labours on his quest for immortality. At high tide, you'll marvel at the spectacular sight of the Atlantic Ocean surging through the caves' massive hillside openings. At low tide, look outward from the caves to the vivid blue sea. Return to Tangier to wander from the fascinating Kasbah district into the historic medina, or Old Quarter, down tiny streets lined with fabric shops. You'll have time at your leisure to browse the incredible Grand Socco marketplace, perhaps purchasing unique wares to commemorate the wonders of your day.	This tour consists of approximately 2 ½ hours of moderate walking, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. The tour is not recommended for guests who utilise a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.
Tangier	Morocco	TNG-002	Highlights	HIGHLIGHTS OF TETOUAN	$209	5	MODERATE	Experience the harmonious blend of Arabic and Spanish culture in tantalizing Tétouan as you visit its celebrated historic medina, an exquisite exhibition at the School of artisans on this illuminating tour. From Tangier, you'll relax on a drive through lush countryside to neighbouring Tétouan, once the capital of the Spanish protectorate in northern Morocco. You'll learn it was settled by highly skilled Andalusian refugees who arrived before and just after the fall of Granada in 1492, and is considered the most Spanish of all Moroccan towns. Tour the stunning walled Medina of Tétouan, deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site for its historical significance, and appreciate the fascinating Spanish and Arabic architecture that reflects the city's bicultural ancestry as you stroll the colourful medina's charming, narrow lanes. At the School of Moroccan Artisans, examine a richly varied collection of traditional crafts and ethnographic items. Visit a unique school in the region that highlights characteristic crafts including woodwork, embroidery, ceramics and weaving. You'll long remember Tétouan's alluring blend of civilisations during your indelible day of exploration.	This tour includes approximately two hours of moderate walking. Portimao	Portugal	PO6-010	Highlights	4X4 EXPLORATION	$149	4	MODERATE	Delight in an exhilarating off-road journey along the Algarve's verdant lands, pristine streams and lush mountains and visit a distillery that manufactures bracingly strong brandy. From a rural wonderland on the outskirts of Portimão, you'll set out in a 4x4 vehicle and explore the verdant Serra de Monchique mountain range, which provides fertile farmland by trapping moisture from the sea. You'll pass by flourishing fig, almond, orange and carob trees grown on terraced land, a method of crop cultivation used by local farmers since Moorish times. At higher elevations, you'll stop to see the stately cork oak tree, which can live for 200 years. You'll learn how its bark is peeled away every 10 years to harvest cork used for flooring, shoes and bottle stoppers. At a nearby distillery, prepare for the delicious burn of aguardente, or firewater, a potent brandy distilled from ripe strawberries and sweetened with honey, a perfect way to finish a tour that celebrates the fruitful harvests of Portugal's bountiful land.	This tour includes limited walking; however, participants must be able to enter and exit the 4x4 with limited assistance. It includes travel over rough, unpaved terrain, which can create a bumpy ride. The tour is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair and may not be suitable for pregnant women, guests who have had recent surgery or anyone with back and/or neck issues. Guests who are prone to motion sickness are advised to take appropriate precautions before departure.

Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-002	Highlights	SCENIC LISBON	$129	3.5	EASY	Step back to the Age of Discovery at the harbour where intrepid sea-going explorers such as Vasco de Gama sailed in search of new lands, survey the grand monastery built to honour their adventures and take in sweeping city views and picturesque squares on this intriguing tour. At the old harbour, you'll admire the fortified Belém Tower, a welcome sight for hardy sea-going voyagers upon their return to Portugal after months at sea. Marvel at the magnificent Gothic Jerónimos Monastery, a UNESCO World Heritage site built to commemorate the explorer's adventures and considered the most elaborate expression of the Manueline style, a unique form of decoration punctuated with marine symbols such as ropes, shells and coral. You'll appreciate a photo stop at the Alto do Parque Belvedere overlook high above Lisbon. Revel in the neoclassical beauty of Baixa, the heart and soul of the city, as you drive along Liberdade Avenue and pass Marques de Pombal Square and Restauradores Square, sights that will remain indelibly etched in your memory.	This tour includes approximately one hour of walking. There will be uneven surfaces to negotiate. On Mondays, the Jerónimos Monastery church is closed, so an outside visit will be substituted.
Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-003	Highlights	MEDIEVAL OBIDOS	$149	5	MODERATE	Revel in the sights of Lisbon's artfully decorated avenues and squares and the beautiful scenery of the countryside on an approximately one-hour panoramic drive to the medieval walled village of Óbidos, complete with a guided walking tour and plenty of free time. Learn how Óbidos became a perpetual wedding gift from kings to their queens since 1298, when King Dinis presented the town to his young bride after she noted that the ramparts around it twined "like a ribbon around a bouquet of shining white houses." Begin a guided walking tour through narrow lanes with colourfully accented homes, and have a exterior visit the 17th-century Santa Maria parish church, featuring walls adorned with beautiful blue-and-white azulejos tiles. You'll relish time on your own at Pillory Square, which is anchored by a monument given to local fishermen in 1492 by Queen Leonor to honour her son but which was later used to punish criminals. Perhaps you'll choose to relax in a quaint outdoor café, browse inviting shops, hike up to the castle that is now a hotel, or explore the old lookout path on top of the wall encircling the city to conclude your unique, off-the-beaten-path experience.	This tour includes moderate-to-extensive walking. There will be some uneven surfaces and numerous steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.
Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-004	Highlights	PORTUGUESE RIVIERA AND SINTRA	$149	5	MODERATE	Journey along Portugal's picturesque coast through the resort towns of Estoril and Cascais into the green and glorious countryside of the Serra de Sintra mountains, described by the poet Byron as a "glorious Eden," to visit elegant French-style formal gardens and a charming old-world village. In enticing Sintra, one of the most eye-catching Portuguese towns, enjoy a panoramic city tour and treasure a view of the alluring medieval royal palace, Portugal's best-preserved royal residence. Travel along a scenic coastal road through the resort town of Cascais, a historic fishing port that is today a favourite swimming and surfing mecca for Lisbon residents, as you marvel at historical and natural sights that span centuries.	This tour includes uneven surfaces and some steps to negotiate. It is not considered suitable for guests who utilise a wheelchair.
Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-005	Highlights	FATIMA - A PILGRIMAGE	$149	5.5	MODERATE	Hear the inspiring story of Fátima during a leisurely drive through scenic countryside to the town where three peasant children announced they had seen the Blessed Virgin Mary, who told them prayer would result in changes such as the fall of communism. You'll learn from your guide that the apparitions began in 1917 and continued for six months until the last occurrence, when 70,000 believers joined the children at the site and declared they had witnessed the miracle of the sun "dancing" in the sky. Marvel at how the modest shrine that was first installed there has grown to include a massive basilica, a sanctuary and a huge main square, which hosts millions of Marian pilgrims and tourists from around the world. Take advantage of free time to explore the sprawling basilica, gaze at its 213-foot tower and visit the exact site of the apparitions, now a chapel marked by a marble pillar with a statue of the Virgin Mary. You might also wish to examine a piece of the Berlin Wall in the sanctuary, which represents the power of prayer, and contemplate the spiritual influence that wrought so many profound changes.	This tour includes approximately 30 minutes of walking, plus any additional walking at the guest's discretion during free time. There will be uneven surfaces to negotiate. The tour is not considered suitable for guests who utilise a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-017	Highlights	SINTRA-COLARES WINE CELLAR	$279	5	MODERATE	Sample several unique wines with an unusual history from the westernmost wine region in continental Europe. On the way to the Sintra-Colares cellar. Currently under metro works, therefore we won't be able to visit it. This landmark should pique your curiosity about the local history, which is especially interesting with regard to wine. The Colares region is one of the few places in the world suitable for growing ramisco grapes because they must be planted in deep sandy trenches so the roots can reach the clay soil below. The vines must also be maintained low to ground to survive the steady salty winds. It is a fascinating and arduous process that you will learn about during the wine and tapas tasting at the wine cellar, which was founded in 1931. There are some experiences that you must live in Lisbon, one of them is the unique visit to the emblematic city of Sintra, its history, its ancient winery and its gastronomic charms. A "must-visit" in Sintra's historical centre and a delightful lunch at the emblematic restaurant "Café de Paris", which is located in the historic centre opposite the Royal Palace. It has been open since 1945 and is a venue with a unique atmosphere and decades of outstanding service. It has become a place for socializing, and is considered the most emblematic eatery in the historical centre. The building has been recently renovated and restored, presenting itself as a diversified restaurant space, including the Café Paris Restaurant and several rooms with features ranging from classic to contemporary. Their services meet the needs of our customers providing an experience of glamour, refinement and quality and their cuisine is traditionally Portuguese, but also offer several international classic dishes, guaranteeing a high quality standard. SINTRA: The setting for a historic palace, surrounded by beautiful gardens and the protagonist of romantic legends, Sintra is a Portuguese villa close to Lisbon that was declared a World Heritage Site in 1995. Located in the middle of a natural park, Sintra is an essential excursion from Lisbon.	This tour includes approximately 1 hour of walking. The sights visited are not wheelchair accessible and therefore it is not recommended for guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.
Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-023	Highlights	LISBON TASTES & TRADITIONS	$139	3.5	MODERATE	Sample two classic Portuguese appetizers and stroll to a culinary venue. Pass through two of Lisbon's most popular plazas – Restauradores Square, which commemorates Portugal regaining its rule from Spain in 1640. Also, see Rossio Square, an expansive plaza known for the eye-catching, wavy design on its pavement. Your immersion into Lisbon's cuisine will begin with a tasting of pastéis de bacalhau, a deep-fried fritter made with potato puree and salt codfish. The guide will describe its preparation and heritage, which dates to the late 1700s. Lisbon is also known for its pastel de nata, an egg custard tart pastry. It too was first invented in the 18th century, supposedly to use up because of the huge amount of eggs donated by the community. You will have the opportunity to see other local dishes and treats while browsing a bustling local food market.	This tour includes approximately 1.6 miles of walking at a steady pace, part of which will be on uneven surfaces. The tour is not recommended for guests who utilise a wheelchair, scooter, or who have any walking limitations. The order of sites visited may vary. Wear comfortable shoes, sunglasses, and comfortable clothing. Guests who miss the return transportation will be responsible for getting back to the ship. The tour is sensitive to weather conditions. Entrance fees are not included. The tour includes local food tasting. Participants will have leisure time during which they can explore and shop for souvenirs to bring back home. Lisbon	Portugal	LIS-024	Highlights	BUZZING AROUND IN LISBON	$349	5	EASY	See the real Lisbon while riding around the capital city in a Tuk Tuk and stop along the way for speciality tastings that reflect the local cuisine. You will begin with an iconic Portuguese liqueur known as ginjinha, a sweet drink made by infusing sour cherries in aguardente (type of distilled alcoholic spirit) with sugar and cinnamon. Lisbon is also renowned for its tapas, more commonly called petiscos, which you will enjoy on at the traditional restaurant Cozinha da Estacao. The ingredients may range from codfish fritter to smoked Iberian ham. Dessert follows at the legendary bakery Pastéis de Belém, which has been serving its namesake egg custard tarts since 1837. One bite and you will understand their popularity. Another sampling awaits at a rooftop bar where you will enjoy a refreshing drink and breathtaking views of the skyline.	Due to the nature of this tour, it is only available for guests 21 and over. Tour is not recommended to guests who utilise a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Lisbon is undergoing street works.
